

The Modern Family

Distributed with theguardian on Saturday, 22nd September 2018

The Modern Family is a full-colour, tabloid-sized newspaper, distributed with The Guardian and packed with tips and inspiration to help parents give their children the best start in life.

The publication will feature relevant editorial throughout, from education, legal and financial advice, to family-friendly holidays and attractions, as well as hobbies.

Clear and consistent family values are important in developing a strong-knit family, but their health and happiness is also dependent on forward planning. The cost of bringing up a child has risen to £148,000, according to recent research, and while Guardian readers are affluent, they are understandably looking for advice on the best way to spend their money and give their families the best in life.

The Modern Family will examine the all-important issue of family health, law and finance, pinpointing ways that parents can invest wisely in their child's future to take advantage of products such as private healthcare, family legal services, dental plans, ISAs and children's savings accounts.

Education is, of course, also at the forefront of every parent's mind and this newspaper will not only look at learning within schools, but also the ways that parents can aid their development outside the classroom.

Guardian readers are also well-travelled and take a total of 4 holidays a year. The Modern Family will look at the best family-friendly holidays and attractions and throughout the world.
